

The Writing a Thesis Template

Writing clearly is essential and a thesis helps to perform this task. Below is a table [read from left to right] with substitutions for each column possible to aid in developing a clear, concise, and to-the-point thesis for exemplary essays. Indeed, you can mix and match sections; use columns as you deem fit for your writing experience. Everything is interchangeable as you become better writers.

Work, Author, Character, or Theme	Work, Author, or Character	Verb	Thematic Purpose
[Work]	Uses [character]	To show	Man's need for...
In [work],	[character]	Shows/depicts	The joys of...
In [work],	[Author]	Emphasizes/defines	How one can be...
[Work's]	[character/setting/tone]	Shows	Man's neglect for...
[Author's]	[Work]	Discusses	The ills of ...
[Author]	Uses [character]	To highlight	Man's inner conflict...
[Author]	Uses [setting/tone/literary devices]	To elicit	Our sympathies for...
[Character's]	[adjective] in [WORK]	Shows	Man's objection to societal...
[Character]	In [Work]	Demands	Our acknowledgement of society's...
[Theme]	as shown in [Author's] [work].	Indeed, this highlights	Man's greed when [character] [verb]...[event]
[Theme]	[Character] proves this as [he/she]...	Elicits a response from [2nd character]	[Author's work].